

INVITATION

to the

EAQUALS – Alpha – DLCCR - Quest Romania

Workshop

Practical Approaches to Language Learning, Teaching and Assessment

Cluj-Napoca, 29 November 2018

Venue: Babeş-Bolyai University, Faculty of Letters, Horea St, no 31

This is the first workshop in a series of annual thematic events, intended to explore the latest trends in language education and to facilitate the sharing of expertise developed at European/international level - within the framework of EAQUALS and the Council of Europe - and at national level.

The main themes to be addressed in the 2018 Workshop are:

- New perspectives on Language Teacher competences - the Quality dimension, as reflected in EAQUALS' latest developments, publications & involvement in ECML/Council of Europe projects
- Digital technologies in language teaching and learning
- The relevance of the CEFR in rethinking literacies and in assessing reading skills

Presenters and workshop facilitators:

Mr Andy Hockley, EAQUALS keynote

Prof. Dr. Laura Mureşan, EAQUALS

Dr. Oana-Maria Carciu, University of Zaragoza, Spain

Dr. Adriana Todea, Babeş-Bolyai University, Alpha Centre for Modern Languages

Dr. Dana Bizuleanu, Babeş-Bolyai University, Institutul German, Goethe Institut Bucharest

Dr. Ioana Sonea, Babeş-Bolyai University, Alpha & Quest Romania

The event will include presentations and workshop activities on topics such as: the role of EAQUALS in quality enhancement at both individual and institutional levels; creative ways to use the CEFR in language teaching and assessment, with a focus on developing academic literacy and assessing reading and writing; using digital technologies in the language classroom, with a focus on bring-your-own device (BYOD) practices. The workshops are intended to be very practical, offering the participants tools they can apply in their own contexts. Presenters will make reference to the extended version of the CEFR (including the new scales for Digital Competences) and the latest Eaquals - OUP publications.

We look forward to seeing you in Cluj!

Dr. Adriana Todea, Centrul Alpha, Universitatea Babeş-Bolyai Cluj-Napoca

Dr. Ovidiu Ursa, Quest Romania
