

Eaquals Members Erasmus+ Projects | Summary Report

Understanding Erasmus+

The Erasmus Programme (European Community Action Scheme for the Mobility of University Students) was established in 1987 by the European Union as a student exchange programme. This then developed into the Erasmus+ Programme which began in 2014 and works to support education, training, youth and sport by combining all of the EU's current schemes in these four areas.

Eaquals involvement in Erasmus+

Since 2014, fourteen Eaquals members have been involved in Erasmus+ projects with many of these running projects on an ongoing annual basis. In running these projects, they have collaborated other members within the Eaquals network and also with additional external partners. These partnerships have covered seventeen different countries as listed below with the project knowledge and expertise disseminated within the members of the project groups:
