

Individual Members of Equals share a commitment to:

- 1 Conduct themselves professionally, honourably, and with integrity
- 2 Participate in Equals activities and contribute to the achievement of the Association's aims
- 3 Actively pursue their own professional development
- 4 Treat students and colleagues equally irrespective of gender, sexual orientation, race or religion
- 5 Take account of, and where it is relevant, comply with and implement, the principles of the Common European Framework of Reference in their work.