CONTENTS

Acknowledgements ix

Introduction 1

PART ONE 3

1 Language course management 4
Introduction 4
Quality 5
Eaquals and quality 7
Roles of managers in language education 8
Who do LCMs serve? 10
Teachers are also managers 11
Conclusion 13

2 Managing the recruitment of new teachers 15
Introduction 15
Recruitment preparation and seeking applications 16
Deciding on the profile of teacher required 16
Preparing other information for applicants 17
Advertising for applicants 20
Selection process 20
Shortlisting 20
Interviewing 22
Appointing 25
Induction and orientation 25
Conclusion 27

PART TWO 29

3 Working with teachers: management, support, and communication 30
Introduction 30
The management of the team 31
People management: some challenges 34
Managing serious disagreement and disciplinary problems 37
Meetings and other communications 40
Written communications with teachers 44
A two-way process 45
Conclusion 46

4 Assessing teachers' development needs 47
Introduction 47
Balancing teacher development priorities 47
The scope of intervention with teachers 49
Gathering evidence for development needs 51
Measures of effectiveness 52
Agreeing and recording needs and priorities 54
Agreeing and recording steps to meet these needs 54
A flexible approach 55
Conclusion 56

5 Supporting and monitoring teachers' professional development 57
Introduction 57
Supporting teacher development 58
Development steps for the whole teaching team 59
Development steps for individual teachers 62
Mentoring schemes 64
Incorporating professional learning into practice 66
Reflecting on development 68
Conclusion 71

6 Observing teachers in the classroom 73
Introduction 73
Types of observation 74
Purposes and variables in lesson observation 75
Some guidelines on setting up and running observation schemes 84
Lesson plans and pre-observation discussion 84
Recording or not? 85

During the observation 86
After the observation – no recording 86
After the observation – with recording 87
Consistency 88
Conclusion 88

PART THREE 89

7 Performance management 90
Introduction 90
Appraisal 91
Purposes, approaches, and systems of performance management 92
Disciplinary matters and grievances 98
Disciplinary matters 98
Grievances 99
Conclusion 100

8 Course design, needs analysis, and assessment of language learning 101
Introduction 101
Course Design 101
Documentation: curriculum and syllabus 102
Analysing and determining language students' needs 103
Quality issues in curriculum and syllabus design 109
Educational philosophy and values 109
The purpose and content of syllabuses 110
Assessment of language learning 113
Means of assessment 115
Conclusion 118

9 Managing learning resources and technology 119
Introduction 119
Challenges for LCMs in resources management 120
Managing teaching and learning equipment 127
Technical support 128
Blended learning 130
Conclusion 133

PART FOUR 135

10 Managing quality: feedback, suggestions, and complaints 136
Introduction 136
Total quality management and the PDCA cycle 136
Internal quality assurance measures 138
Obtaining feedback from students 141
Conclusion 148

11 Managing institutional self-assessment and action planning 149
Introduction 149
Developing or selecting standards and indicators 151
Implementing a systematic review 152
The bigger picture 156
Creating an action plan 157
Adjusting standards and indicators 159
Conclusion 159

12 Final considerations 161
Introduction 161
The complexity of the LCM's role 161
The LCM's professional development 162
Promoting a positive climate 163
Conclusion 164

Appendix 1 165
Appendix 2 173
Appendix 3 175
Appendix 4 176
Glossary 179
Website references 183
References 186
Index 189